OUR MISSION

Catholic Charities Atlanta provides transformative services that empower families to achieve self-sufficiency.

Catholic Charities Atlanta moves families and vulnerable individuals from instability to self-sufficiency regardless of background or religion.

We provide comprehensive services that address urgent needs, strengthen families and create lasting pathways to stable lives.

Our programs include mental health counseling, financial literacy, service navigation, senior housing and more. We serve children, veterans, refugees, seniors and at-risk individuals throughout the Archdiocese.

We are a hub of accredited solutions provided by professional staff. We are social workers, therapists, certified housing and financial counselors, attorneys, and catalysts of hope.

HOW CCA IS FUNDED:

2025 ANNUAL BUDGET: $11,070,260

More than 80% of every dollar donated directly impacts those we serve.

*Excludes costs and revenue from President's Circle retreat.
