Support Refugee Youth

Be a friend to a newly arrived refugee youth and their family

With COVID-19, social distancing, and virtual learning, many refugee youth feel isolated.

Caring adults can help by mentoring – empowering, supporting, and being a friend.

We match each volunteer with a refugee youth in a one-on-one mentoring relationship.

Mentors and mentees are meeting virtually now, but we will meet in-person again as soon as it is safe!

We need mentors now more than ever! Please reach out today!
